CORPORATE GOVERNANCE STATEMENT

The Board of Australian Potash Limited (Board) is committed to ensuring that the Company's obligations and responsibilities to its various stakeholders are fulfilled through its corporate governance practices. The directors of the Company undertake to perform their duties with honesty, integrity, care and due diligence and to act in good faith in the best interests of the Company.

The Company's Board is committed to a high standard of corporate governance practices, ensuring that the Company complies with the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth), ASX Listing Rules, the Company's Constitution and other applicable laws and regulations.

Corporate Governance Compliance

The Board has agreed that for so long as the Company is admitted to the official list of the ASX it shall abide by the ASX Corporate Governance Council Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations (ASX Recommendations), where applicable. The Board may from time to time determine to depart from the ASX Recommendations in certain particulars having regard to the circumstances of the Company, including its size, stage of development and other material factors.

The fourth edition of the ASX Recommendations was released in February 2019 and came into force for financial years commencing on or after 1 January 2020. The table overleaf lists each of the ASX Recommendations and whether the Company is in compliance and was so for the 2022/23 reporting period. Where, after due consideration, the Company's corporate governance practices depart from a recommendation, the Board has offered full disclosure and reason for adoption of its own practice, in compliance with the "if not, why not" regime.

Further Information

This Corporate Governance Statement and further information about the Company's governance practices is set out on its website at <https://www.australianpotash.com.au/site/About-Us/corporate-governance>.
